

Anti-corruption day observed in Palakkad

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

@Palakkad

AN interaction with students, on the significance of youth in strengthening accountability and developing innovative solutions to prevent and curb corruption, was organised by VISWAS (Victims Information, Sensitisation, Welfare and Assistance Society), Palakkad as part of the observance of International Anti-Corruption day on Monday.

Former Minister of Health V C Kabeer was the chief guest of the event. He urged the students to speak up against corruption and to take a pledge not to bribe officials.

He said that leaders have to be made accountable for professing corruption.

VISWAS secretary P Premnath delivered the key note address.

VISWAS vice president S Santha Devi presided over the meet. Principal of Chinmaya Mission college, Usha Gopinath offered felicitations. R Devikripa, VISWAS joint secretary welcomed the gathering and C Sreekumar, managing committee member of VISWAS proposed a vote of thanks.

